Castroville community residents and interested parties: The County of Monterey Housing and Community Development Department staff invites you to be a part of the development of the Castroville Community Plan Update (REF220010).

∞∞∞∞

The Castroville Community Plan is a planning document used by the County to shape the policies that support development for meeting the current needs and concerns of Castroville residents. Your participation in the plan update process gives you a say in the future growth and redevelopment of your community.

At this meeting, staff will provide an overview of the plan update and changes that have occurred in the plan area, and seek input on current needs and concerns of Castroville residents. Bring your questions, ideas, and feedback on future growth and redevelopment in your community.

Please participate in the plan update survey to share your ideas and feedback beginning March 17, 2023.
