IV. Regular Calendar

A. Receive an update on the Secure Track Youth and implementation progress of SB823.

Director Julie Kenyon provided a presentation on the preparation and new programs that are being provided to the residents of Juvenile Hall. The Hartnell Rising Scholars program is being well received and productive for the youth to begin their path to higher education. The programs available to youth offer a variety of skill development such as critical thinking, teamwork, personal healing through expression and creativity. A greater support network will also be available with a social worker on-site and Behavioral Health staff.

Members of the Subcommittee appreciated the presentation and details of the programs and services being offered to the youth.

Miguel Garcia the representative from the California Health and Human Services Agency – Office of Youth and Community Restoration (OYCR) introduced himself and thanked Probation staff for the tour of the facility earlier in the summer. He showed his enthusiasm in collaborating with the department in the implementation new protocols and offering new programs.

V. Announcements

None.

VI. Adjournment

The next Special JJCC Subcommittee meeting will be announced at a later date.

The meeting adjourned at 4:32 pm.
