CANDIDATE NAME:	Jason M. Remyense	AGE:	45
OCCUPATION:	Electrical Contractor/School Board Member

(CANDIDATE STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS)

As a Governing Board Member for the Carmel Unified School District, my dedication to community, schools, and students has only strengthened. I've led with consistency and integrity, fostering positive momentum. I aim to continue serving as a board member, leveraging school involvement, district understanding, and collaborative style to address CUSD challenges effectively.

As a long-time resident, business owner, and Carmel High School graduate, my commitment to this community is deep. With four children attending CUSD schools, I have a personal stake in our district's success.

I have invested significant time in training to enhance my role as a board member. I'm committed to staying open-minded and working with district staff and fellow board members to set goals for our future. My focus is on maintaining a safe environment for all learners while exploring innovative ways to strengthen academics, arts, music, and vocational programs.

In less than two years, I have earned the respect of my board colleagues, culminating in my election as Board President. My dedication to CUSD remains strong, and I'm prepared to make tough decisions needed to ensure all students have the best start in life. Together, we can continue building a bright future for our community.

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> I affirm that I want my candidate statement printed in the Monterey County Voter Information Guide.
