My name is Jeannette Witten. My husband Marty and I live in the beautiful Carmel Highlands with our 14-year-old twins who attend Carmel High School. We have family who have called majestic Big Sur home since the 1970's. The people in the geographic areas that make up District 3 of CUSD are some of the most talented and forward-thinking individuals on the planet. The unique nature of the people and land makes the needs of our District 3 students, families, and community unique as well.

I am an experienced school trustee having served on the Board of Santa Catalina School. I am also experienced in successfully managing finances and creating and implementing operational and strategic plans. I manage these activities daily in my role as Managing Partner at the historic law firm of Hudson Martin. I also serve and have served in numerous leadership roles within the community, including those supporting foster youth services, drug and alcohol recovery, and environmental protection: Board Chair Emeritus, CASA of Monterey County; Board Member, Sun Street Centers, and Founding Board Member, Protect Monterey Bay.

I will serve with excellence as your trustee and advocate for our District 3 students, families, and community.
