(CANDIDATE STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS)

Having been born and raised in Greenfield, it is a distinct honor for me to announce my candidacy for the City Council of Greenfield District 4. For the past eight years, I have dedicated my efforts to serving our community through various non-profit organizations, participating in community events, and currently holding the position of Chair on the City of Greenfield's Planning Commission.

As a proud descendant of immigrants from Mexico, a graduate of Greenfield High School in 2007, and a devoted mother of two, I have a personal understanding of the needs and challenges faced by our youth and families. Growing up in this community, I have also observed the significant potential that Greenfield possesses. My objective is to foster job growth, particularly among our younger generation, to attract new businesses that our city urgently requires, and to enhance code enforcement measures in order to revitalize the City of Greenfield.

I would be greatly honored to receive your vote.
