CANDIDATE NAME:	Rebecca R. Lindor	AGE:	64
OCCUPATION:	Law Office Manager
(CANDIDATE STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS)
Born and raised in California, I fully understand our most precious resource is water. Water should not be a for-profit commodity. Our water system is owned by a private for-profit corporation serving its investors. We have some of the most expensive water in California. The only way to bring the cost down is through a public, municipally owned water system. As mandated by the voters in Measure J (2018) MPWMD is pursuing the buyout of Cal Am. The court proceeding has already begun. My educational background includes studies at New York Institute of Technology and CSUMB where I obtained my California State Certification as a Paralegal, with emphasis in Criminal and Civil Law. My work experience includes 30 years in K-12 administration and, for the last 11 years, managing a law office in Monterey. I have also served on the Board of a local private school and, most recently, as a member of MPWMD's Ordinance 152 Citizens' Oversight Panel. I look forward to working with the MPWMD Board of Directors to make our water supply affordable, sustainable, and publicly owned.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> I affirm that I want my cand		mation Guide.
